Mission

The East Mountain Chamber's primary goal is to bring economic growth to the East Mountain Community by supporting our local member businesses.

We actively promote, refer, and offer networking opportunities to our member businesses. We also support in giving back to the East Mountain Community as a whole.

Connecting Business with Opportunity

Since 1982 the East Mountain Chamber of Commerce's (EMCC) primary goal has been to support local businesses. As a Regional 501c3 non-profit organization, we encourage participation because it plays a significant role of placing your business in the right place at the right time. Your participation can increase the community's awareness of your business.

We aspire to connect businesses and communities through our events, programs, services and publications. In addition, we offer educational workshops, seminars, and business mixers.

Whether your business is new or established, joining the East Mountain Chamber of Commerce is a great way to network and build your business.

MARKETING

- Press releases and business mentions.
- Ribbon cutting and ground breaking announcements for your business sent to local papers, displayed on our Website, and e-mailed to our members via our e-newsletter.
- An opportunity to be a featured business of the month on the Chamber Website banner and in our e-newsletter.
- New EMCC Member packet.
- Relocation packets containing your business information are available to new East Mountain arrivals in response to inquiries about the area.
- Special advertising opportunities (see Membership Benefits).
- Website member directory listing at www.EastMountainChamber.com.

- First Thursday Monthly Chamber luncheon meetings—a great networking and marketing opportunity—feature guest speakers, current and new member presentations. They are held the first Thursday of every month, 11:30 a.m.-1p.m., rotating between Los Vecinos Community Center in Tijeras, Mags Indoor Shooting Range in Moriarty, and Legacy Church in Edgewood.
- Member restaurants are in the catering rotation for Chamber luncheons and events.
